Terms of Reference

Web Application Developer

ITC is a joint agency of the United Nations and the World Trade Organisation for trade-related technical cooperation in developing countries. ITC’s Information Technology & Systems (IT&S) section under the Division of Programme Support (DPS) is looking for Microsoft .NET experienced web developer to develop and support web applications in ITC.

Duties and responsibilities:
The Consultant working under the direct guidance of the chief of Information technology & systems and the overall supervision of Information and development unit will:

- Participate in determining product requirements, technical specifications, and enhancements.
- Design and implement web applications according to requirements
- Integrate data from multiple sources using ETL technologies
- Provide ongoing support to, and maintenance of, relevant IT applications, systems and projects, including development of relevant user manuals
- Research and provide advice on latest technological trends

Education and Certification:

- Bc/MSc in Engineering Science / Information Technology or related fields
- Active Microsoft certifications is an asset

Experience and Skills

- Minimum of 5 years of experience developing on the .NET Framework in C#
- Front-end development experience in JavaScript, HTML/CSS, Typescript
- Experience in developing web services, RESTful APIs in C#
- Hands on experience with SQL database and query language.

Language
Excellent knowledge of English. Knowledge of French or other official UN language is an asset.