Trade – A force for good: Include, Innovate, Integrate

Join us on 25–26 October to see how trade can be a force for good at a time when global challenges – economic, social and environmental – are changing the way trade works.

Entrepreneurs, come to do business. Policymakers, come to gain fresh perspectives. Development partners, come to hear from practitioners about what works on the ground.

Let’s make trade work for the 99%.

At a glance: WEDF 2017

WEDF 2017 is co-hosted by the International Trade Centre (ITC) and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade of Hungary. The Hungarian National Trading House is the counterpart for the business-to-business meetings.

The event will include the launch of the Hungarian chapter of SheTrades, the ITC women’s empowerment initiative, aiming at connecting one million women to international markets by 2020.

It will also feature the international launch of the SME Competitiveness Outlook 2017, ITC’s annual flagship report.
The International Trade Centre (ITC) is the joint agency of the World Trade Organization and the United Nations.
