TIPS ON HOW TO PREPARE YOUR NATIONAL QUALITY AWARDS ENTRIES

Some tips on how to prepare your entry:

Winning in the National Quality Awards can mean National recognition, media exposure and enormous boost of pride for your entire organization. So, it's worth investing some time and effort in an entry that stands a good chance of winning. Here are valuable hints and tips to prepare your awards entry.

a) Link your achievements to the category criteria

Each category has specific questions and requirements. Make sure your entry is structured to respond to these.

b) Use visuals liberally in your entry

The judges are busy and pressed for time. They want to do justice to your entry, but they don't have all day. They're looking for winners, and don't have time to digest irrelevant information in your submission. Help them by using visuals in your entry. These could include photographs of activities, charts of your strategy or pictures of products carrying the logo.

c) Emphasize the Impact of your activities

Everything your organization does has a wider community impact. Show how your employment affects people. Show how you create opportunities through your supply chain.

d) Benefits associated with awards

Participation in regional and international quality awards including SADC Quality Awards and EAC Quality Awards.

Winners will be advertised through TBS website, TPSF platforms ZBS website and all social media of TBS and ZBS.
